

Jack Anderson - Volunteer

"How can I give back to my community?"

Age: 28

Work: Student

Family: Single

Location: Boston, Massachusetts

Social

Caring

Positive

Bio

Jack stumbled upon the Too Dam Young website and read an article that mentioned the Hope After Project. He immediately looked up the website and reached out. He decided to volunteer at different non-profits to get exposed to various volunteer opportunities.

Goals

- Wanting to gain volunteering experience.
- Feels connected to the cause because everybody feels grief at some point.
- Meeting and connecting with people in his community.
- Wants to make a lasting positive impact in his community.

Motivations

Emotional Support

Family

Honor of loved one

Growth

Remain Active

Social

Frustrations

- Does not know where and how to start volunteering for projects.
- Cannot find volunteer projects in his area.